Group 'A' Engineer Officers leaving DGBR service

2727. SHRI C.O. POULOSE: Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Group 'A' Engineer Officers are leaving the Directorate General Border Roads (DGBR) service in spite of the fact that there is an acute unemployment in the country;

(b) whether this does not indicate dominance, mismtnagement and exploitation of General Reserve Engineering Force (GREF) officers in the hands of Army officers who are on the top of DGBR;

(c) whether GREF officers do not command dignity and job satisfaction and their high-tech qualification, knowledge and experience have no meaning; and

(d) if so, by when their dignity will be restored?

THE MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SHRI JASWANT SINGH): (a) to (d) Yes, Sir. Some Border Roads Engineering Service Officers, especially fresh recruits have left service, primarily due to deployment in remote border areas. Army and GREF officers are posted to Staff and Command appointments on regular tenure basis keeping in view their qualifications, experience and service profile. As ample opportunities are being provided to GREF officers, for furtherance of their career prospects, the question of any discrimination does not arise.
